2 nights/3days Ghana-Western Region Tour.

Day 1.

Pick up at Accra Mall for Ghanaian and The Kotoka International Airport for foreigners.

We shall travel straight to experience the Assin Manso Slave river. The Assin Manso Ancestral Slave River was one of the slave markets for gathering indigenes during the trans-Atlantic slave trade. The River Site also served as the place where slaves had their last bath on African soil before being marched down to the slave castles of Elmina and Cape Coast along the coast.

After this experience, we shall drive to the Kakum National Park, located approximately one hour drive from Cape Coast. The Kakum National Park treasures many different plants and animal species and is very popular destination for tourists, hikers, botanists and birdwatchers from all around the world. It has canopy walks that you would experience too.

We would return to Cape Coast and pass the night.

Day 2

Breakfast between 6:00am-7:00am

We shall then travel to experience the Elmina castle, where slaves are housed before their shipment to America in the era of slave trade.

Our next destination is the Nzulezu-stilt village tour after which we shall pass the night.

Day 3

We shall visit the tilt water, possibly do some donations to the community and buy souvenirs, engage with the community dwellers by listening to the wonderful stories of Nzulezo, take pictures and then depart to our pickup point in Accra.
